MAGAZINE FEATURES

THE NEWS SCIMITAR

DAILY HOME HELPS

TURK AND TEUTON

Ambassador Morgenthau's Story of Great War Plots By HENRY MORGENTHAU.

alaat's attitude toward the Armening-

Greetings

To Our Friends

and Customers:

—with the sincere wish that your devotion to our country's calls may bring you increasing prosperity in the year now begin-

BOHLEN-HUSE

COAL & ICE CO.

"I have accomplished more toward solving the Armenian problem in three months than Abdul Hamid accom-plished in thirty years"

Enver Pasha Discusses the Armenians opportunity to rid themselves of the Armenians and that they proposed to mians was summed up in the proud use U.

boast which he made to his friends: By this time Enver had become more great help to us and had much to de with our surveys. It ought similarly now bein the Armenian's and their revolutionary program. I am sure that if these outside countries did not en-courage them they would give up at their efforts to appose the present gov-ernment and become law-abiding citi-zens. We now have this country it our absolute control and we can easily revenge ourselves on any revolution ists."

American representatives should go to that part of the country and assist and care for the exiles.

THE HOUSEWIFE AND HER BUSINESS

FOR CHEAP, DELICIOUS MEAT, TRY RABBIT

Girls as well as boys are members of the rabbit clubs and enjoy it.

More heat will be obtained from less coal if all heat-absorbing surfaces are kept free from soot and dust. Hot air places carry, more heat if clean.

Circulating air is more casely heated than still air filled with impurities. To get the maximum of heat from coal, the air in the house should be changed once an hour.

not absolutely necessary a combination of wood and coal is economical. Use wood for the preparation of breakfast and supper and coal for the midday

Nut Bread.

VNCLE WIGGILY DTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE WHITEWASH.

byright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

byright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper por Syndicate.)

BY HOWARD R. GARIS.

Incle Wigglly Longears, the bunny with gentleman, slid not get up yery in his cellar. We'll sneak up on bim, easy like, grab him before he knows it and bite a lot of source off his ears, Always the first of the year like rabbit source.

"So do I," said the Skuddlemagoon, but what is Uncle Wigglly doing down in his cellar."

Fifteen hundred boy and giri ciub through a meat grinder may be such members are raising rabbits in Tacoma. Wash, and more are constantly joining at this enterprise to produce cheap and relicious meat. All over the country in the bors and glris clubs, formed under the supervision of the department of gricultural colleges, for the purpose of growing rabbits, are on the increase of growing rabbits, are constantly joining to casefully added to cooked vegetables for a salad. Apples raw and sliced thin will furnish crispness when fresh plants the first produce the salad. Apples raw and sliced thin will furnish crispness when fresh plants the control of the department of gricultural colleges.

If growing rabbits, are on the increase is size, number and popularity.

When the fact began to be realized that the number of domesticated animals ordinarily used for food wars not qual to the demand, various other curves which might be used to help upplement the regular supply were increasing the most promising iscovered by in increasing the number of rabbits and encouraging their se for food. This was in line with the middings in other countries on the same uestion. It is stated that 30 per cent of the ment used in Germany last year for the middings in other countries on the same uestion. It is stated that 30 per cent of the ment used in Germany last year same rabbits.

Delicately Flavored Meat.

Those who know good food long ago realized that not even chicken could excel a young hare in delicacy of fiber and flavor, and to increase their use should not prove a difficult matter. Nearly all the best botels now regularly serve rabbit prepared in some special way their chef has devised.

The rabbit associations in California and Nebraska are making special offers to boy and girl cipb members which will enable a youngster to start a warren at a moderate cost with good stock. If every rabbit association in the country would do likewise it the country would do likewise it ould be a big boost.

in the country would do likewise it would be a big boost. In Utah the rabbit industry among the boy and girl club members is increasing in importance, with many youngsters going into it this season and finding it profitable.

Demonstrations are given in the boys and girls clubs as to the best way to kill, dress and market rabbits. The young people are also taught how so can the meat and tan the skins for home use. The popular use of rabbit skins by furriers of this country is evidenced by the import lists of last year, which show 90,000,000 skins were skippled in show 90,000,000 skins were skippled in the month preceding. These pelts are also used by hatters to make better grades of felt hats.

Habbits don't crow or lay eggs, but they are sight there with the cheapest meat that can be produced.

Salads for All Winter.

For those who live away from the large meat markets, where green saind markets is the year can be seen to anyone who wites for it.

Nut Bread.

For those who live away from the large meat markets, where green saind material is procurable the year round the problem of the cold months of A sailed without the mince, but the server and stake its place: Cut part of the sem of one of and set it in a bowl of water or several hours. The moisture which cill be drawn up through the stem will make the flabby leaves crisp.

The tender center thus treated may e used in the same manner as istuce eaves or it may be shredded before the other sailed material is placed on the supersorment of agriculture, conserves both sugar and recommended by the department of agriculture, conserves both sugar and sugar and sugar the sugar that four, but with wheat flour at present on the approved list it may be used if desired in place of the corn flour called for in the recipe.

Four tablespoons corn syrup, two eggs, two tablespoons fat, three-fourths cup liquid, one-half cup mashed potations, the suggest department of agriculture pecialists.

Mix in order given, Bake 1½ hours in moderate oven, Raisins may be used in place of nuis.—From department circular on Use of Oats. material for a salad is often a serious one for the cook.

A salad without lettuce, to many, is like mince pie without the mince, but mecessary as lettuce seems, attractive salads may be served without it. Cabbing, it, treated as follows, may almost take its piace: Cut part of the stem of one off and set it in a bowl of water for several hours. The moisture which will be drawn up through the stem will make the flabby leaves crisp.

The tender center thus treated may be used in the same manner as lettuce leaves or it may be shredded before the other salad material is placed on it, suggest department of agriculture specialists.

Slacker. So he whistled a jolly tune, and he inped his brush in the whitewash and sgan to splash and paint it on the clar walls. Now, about this same time the had d Flysisewah and the still worse kuddlemagoon met under a mulberry with not far from the hollow stumped the Flysisewah said to the Skuddlewaron.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, JAN. 2, 1919. (Copyright, 1919, by the McClure News paper Syndicate.)

This is not an important day is planetary government, according to as-trology. Neptune is slightly adverse, but the sway is not especially significant.

There is a sign read as indicating, in the upheaval of the world mind, a period of extreme uncertainty and many contradictions in public opinion.

Criticism of ones fellow men! an inclination to question motives and widespread jealousy are to be watched for and carefully avoided during the next few weeks.

Ambition is one of the characteristics that will be most strongly revealed in that foreshadows supreme opportuni-ties for recognition and development. Science applied to industry is to play an important part in reconstruction. During this sway there may be sin-ister influences at work to undermine public confidence, but the seers declar-ne stars that seems to forecast discontent, disappointment and anxiety in wage-earning matters.

Again religious difficulties and agitation of questions that arouse ill feeling are presaged by the stars. Frejudice and misunderstandings may be disseminated through some organized movement against which serious warning is given by the prophets of the new era.

ing is given by the prophets of the new era.

This should be rather a favorable day for theatrical performances. The week should be more profitable than usual.

Congress is still subject to a direction of the stars making for impetuous speech, heated debates and party dissentions.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the forecast of rather a quiet year. Success in business or professional pursuits is indicated.

Children born on this day are likely to be clever and intelligent. These subjects of Capricorn are often extremely gifted.

the forecast of rather a quiet year. Sincess in business or professional pursuits is indicated.

Children born on this day are likely to be clever and intelligent. These subjects of Capricorn are often externely gifted.

AMUSEMENTS

New Lyric.

Flattering addences so far this week have paid their compliments to the week that the paid their compliments to the week Lyric players, wellow. Common this time that the wast the third with the series of the productions and this is the last the opportunity of the last of the productions and this is the last the opportunity of the play of the player which was scheduled in play Memphis earlier in the season, but was canceled when the road to play Memphis carlier in the season, but was canceled when the road to play Memphis earlier in the season, but was canceled when the road to play Memphis earlier in the season, but was canceled when the road to play Memphis earlier in the season, but was canceled when the road to play Memphis patrons are assured of a season of spiendial plays.

Loew's Lyceum,

Holiday crowds will find much to entertain them at Loew's Lyceum the hill which is not health the last of the program, which is headed by that singing trio, Corbett, Shepart the program, which is headed by that singing trio, Corbett, Shepart the program which is headed by that singing trio, Corbett, Shepart the program was provided by the singing trio, Corbett, Shepart the program was provided the program was provided the program was provided to the provi and supper and coal for the midday dinner and principal baking.

The fireplace is a luxury in winter, but an economy in spring and fall, a crite Coal should not be burned in the fireplace. It can be kept supplied in the rural bome by prunings from trees and shrules, bits of waste wood and broken boxes. The fireplace insures ventilation

Holiday crowds will find much to entertain them at Loew's Lyceum in the bill which is being presented for the first four days of the week. Music and comedy are the chief characteristics of the program, which is headed by that singing trio, Corhett. Shepard and Dunn. These three are direct from engagements in the East, and their harmonies are of the latest vintage. Finn and Finn, blackface functors, are also singers and they add much to the fun. Olive May is interesting in a revue of gowns and songs, and the Four Casters are lively acrobats. 'The Squaw Man' is the film feature, presenting an all-star cast in a production staged by Cecil de Mille and taken Orpheum.

When it comes to discovering talent, Gus Edwards, at the Orpheum this week, is the composite of Shorlock Holmes, Hawkshaw, the detective, and Old Sleuth, to say nothing of the modern detectors, Bill Pinkerton and Bill Burns. By profession Gus Edwards is a song writer and producer of song revues. The latter are usually of the juvenile variety and his search for talent in the most part is for juveniles. He has found and developed more clever youngsters than all of the other managers together. Many of the popular prima donnas and comedians of the day began their training as youngsters with Gus Edwards and owe the major part of their success to his partience and ability. Georgie and Cuddes, two of the cleverest stage children of all times, were discovered and developed by Edwards.

Moving Pictures

Majestic No. 2.

"Thirty a Week," Tom Moore's second Goldwyn starring vehicle, which is shown at Majestic No. 2 today and Thursday, is undoubtedly the greatest preduction in which the handsome, popular young star has ever been seen.
The role of Dan Murray, the chauffeur, offers the Goldwyn star every opportunity to give freely of his admirable art, appreciation of which is found in the hundreds of requests Goldwyn received to make the talented player a star in his own right. BY HOWARD R. GARIS.

acle Wiggily Longears, the bunny sit gentleman, sid not get up very lay the first day of the New Year, had been out the evening before h Nurse Jane to a party, and they have some of his source.

"So do "but what is Uncle Wiggily used in his cellar?"

"Oh, maybe sorting over the potatoes to get the sprouts off, or sometime like that," said the Pipsisewah, "Come on, we'll have some of his source."

New Majestic No. 1.

An escaped convict watching two creeks rob their thieving emplayer is but one of the many unusual scenes in Rex Beach's "Laughing Bill livide, tioldwyn's picturization of the gripping story of the same name, which is shown for the last time today at New Majestic No. 1. The amusing incident affords visual relief from a score or more thrilling scenes in the greatest of all Rex Beach productions.

Loew's Princess.

On, maybe sorting over the potawith Nirae Jane to a party, and they are both sleepy in the morning.

But when Uncle Wiggily did get up the put on the oldest clothes he could find, and when Miss Fugay Wiggy, his missirat lady housekeeper, saw him she suid.

Wiggie! This isn't Hallow ent that you should dress up like a argamuffin! What are you going to to?

Something useful for the first day for the year, answered the bunny rabbit gentleman. If you do something youd and useful the first day of teNew Year, maybe you will have good uck and ean do the same every day.

"And what are you going to do:
"Siked Nurse Jane.

I am coins to whitewash the, cellar, and make it clean and sweet and shift, answered the bunny. That is why I put on my old clothes, as the whitewash is sure to splansh of me, as the paint did when I painted the titchen.

"One on the oldest sure to splansh of me, as the paint did when I painted the
titchen."

"One of the sure of the surney. But still the cellar of my hollow stump immalow needs whitewashing is such respy work."

"I know it is," spoke the bunny. But still the cellar of my hollow stump immalow needs whitewashing, and it will be when I have finished.

"All right If you feel you must do the said the muskeral lady." I'll stay home and get you a nice dinner.

So Unice Wiggily put on ine old leiches, and then he got a can of time from the store and put it in a paid, with water, to make the whitewash.
So I'me on the older the pairs, and it will be delar of my hollow stump immalow needs whitewash and a brush tone when I paired the still the cellar of my hollow stump immalow needs whitewash is,
and the muskerat lady. "I'll stay home and get you a nice dinner.

So Unice Wiggily put on ine old
consultation of the first day
home and get you a nice dinner.

So Unice Wiggily put on ine old
consultation of the first day
home and get you a nice dinner.

So Unice Wiggily put on ine old white and the muskera lady. "I'll stay home and get you a nice dinner.

So Unice Wiggily was

Then, wearing of the Fannie Ward in "The Cheat," one of the most stirring of the eternal triangle pictures, which in this instance carries a foreign angle to it, will be the attractive star at Loew's Princess for Wednesday and Thursday. In this stirring drama of social life, Miss Ward is cast as the wife of a wealthy broker to whom financial difficulties come. She appeals to a wealthy Jap only to be trailed by her husband and found at the Jap's home. Several intense dramatic situations feature this film. Fatty Arbuckle in "The Sheriff." Is the added attraction.

WANT BETTER SERVICE ON IRON MOUNTAIN

NATCHEZ, Miss., Jan. L. (Spl.)—Commercial organizations of Natchez and Monroe are working in conjunction to secure a double daily passenger service over the Iron Mountain railroad between the two cities. The matter has been taken up with the federal tallroad administration and the officers of the system. It has been admitted by the railroad officials that the traffic justifies the service, and it is pointed out that the extraordinary conditions that existed during the war period have been removed.

BANQUET FOR SOLDIERS.

ROLL CALL EXTENDED.

SENATOBIA, Miss. Jan. 1 (Spl.)—
The Red Cross Christmas enrollment campaign has been extended in Tate tounty until Jan. 7. The enrollment has been very disappointing. Less than 10 per cent of the county's quota has been subscribed. This has been caused largely by a second coldemic of influensa. This malady is absting, however, and it is believed the county's quota can be reached by Jan. 1.

BARQUET FOR SOLDIERS.

DYERSHURG, Tend, Jan. 1. (Spl.)—A banquet was tendered the Dyer county soldiers and sailors during the host and the affair was greatly entitled to the county's largely and the soldiers. The meanure was served by H. C. Whittier, John C. Rogers and others. The meanure was served by H. C. Whittier and the banquet was largely attended.

WHO'S TO BLAME?

ETHEL LLOYD PATTERSON.

enough; but the balm to Freddie's loneliness was more in the thought of friendly interest: of being in a home ence more, even though that home were not his own. But to have, perhaps, the elderly greeer's wife ask him if he liked "gravy on his potatoes," or how he "managed to get his laundry"—well, there would be real loy." And so all day before the dinner hour arrived, he hopefully pictured her to himself, round and motherly with neat gray hair, and capable, kind, plump hands. Since miracles always are happening, she was like that.

miracles always are happening, she was like that.

She came from the dining room into the living to greet Freddie that evening when he went to their house with her husband. She was beaming, her face shining with good humor and the warmth of the kitchen range over which she had been hending.

"So you're Mr. Frederick Mason's son" she said. "Well, I'm groud to know you." Long before you were born or thought of, your father used to cover this territory, and he'd always come home with John one night when he was in town for one of my 'smothered' chickens. He used to say nobody could didn't he John?"

John verified the statement with a nod. And Freddie's face ill up.

"Why. I've heard dad speak of you. Mrs. Bates," he said. "I remember perfectly now."

Mrs. Bates turned to her husband. "I'sn't that like Frederick Mason."

Half an hour later, as the three sa at the table in the dining room, sho was calling Freddie "my boy." And he liked it. She completely had forgotte that he was the son of a man who beside her own and her husband's hum beside her own and made a wast fortune

Copyright, 1918, by the McClure New-paper Syndicate.)

CHAPTER NO. 22.

An Oasis.

Freddie perked at once, as flowers to after a summer shower. Not so much because the elderly grocer, one-time friend of his father's, had asked him to dinc on "chicken" and "layer cake," though goodness only knows these delicacles would be welcome enough, but the balm to Freddie sone-one-type one-You just slip into your god yest and coat and take Mr. Mason over the content of the content of the towns. It is a sweet sad nice a life in the content of the course the content of the content of the course the cou

Lost Steadily and Could Not Find Relief-Every Sign of Trouble Disappeared Since He Took Tanlac.

The remarkable experience of T. M. Hall, a wealthy farmer living just out of Adrian, Georgia, is another striking evidence of the extraordinary merits of Taniac. In speaking of his two years of suffering and subsequent relief, Mr. Hall said:

New Year!

-Our true wish for our many hundreds of friends and customers.

May your prosperity be unbounded.

A. Graves Co.

Near Union

Nearly All of Our Best Citizens Have Joined Our Christmas Savings Club

Come-Join-Be a Happy Recipient of a Check

Next Christmas-You Still

TO OUR MEMBERS-We want to help you save, so if you are behind in your payments, do not get discouraged-you can still pay. Come and do the best you can.

Remember the checks that are to be yours if you are faithful-$25.50 to Class No. 2 members, and $63.75 to Class No. 5 members, plus 3 per cent in-

EVERYBODY IS JOINING

American Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Cerner Second and Madison

When the Bishop kicked up his heels

Queer idea for a bishop—to take off his gaiters and apron and put on evening clothes, just for one night. To go with the famous actor who was his brother—to an after-the-theatre supper and then to the most notorious gambling den in London.

But queerer yet were the adventures that began in the restaurant and ended among the chimney pots of a certain roof in the cold gray

"The Episcopal Scherzo" is a new sort of story by I. A. R. Wylie, the English writer whose "Toward Morning" thrust he suddenly into the first rank. And it is only one of the exceptional stories by Mary Synon, James Oliver Curwood, Fannie Heaslip Lea, Arthur Somers Roche and Kathleen Norris which make this January number the one that you will want first of all January numbers at your newsdealer's-to-

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

for JANUARY

OUT TODAY - AT YOUR NEWSDEALER'S - 20 CENTS